

Icicles and snow are freezing up the land coating it in a white blanket.
Time for all the videos to break free of their cases and amuse us all.
Snow time is great...roasting sweet chestnuts by the fire and making snow angels on the ground! I can't wait!

Scarves at the ready...time to go snow boarding down the tallest hills.
No school for a day, what will I do?
Over the hills and valleys we walked, white, white, white, is all I see, I'm so happy!
Wind storms are coming, what should I do? The snow is curving and twirling around, run inside it's your only chance.

Teas and coffees are being served, only to the adults how absurd!
Ice is melting quick and fast, it's nearly over, back to school!
Mice are coming back, out and about, Spring is nearly here! Does it have to end?
Eventually it all disappears and the fun with it. It goes.

By Leah Chandler